

SEMINAR 2 TOPICS

LECTURES

1st Day 09:00–17:45

1. Strategic Leadership During Wartime

A Lviv Mayor's perspective on leading a European city through more than four years of full-scale war.

2. Crisis Governance and Continuity of Municipal Government

Crisis decision-making structures

Cooperation between the municipality and military administration

Maintaining continuity of government

Emergency response to missile and drone attacks

Coordination of municipal services

Lessons learned since February 2022

3. Managing Mass Internal Displacement and Volunteer Mobilisation

Receiving hundreds of thousands of internally displaced persons

Organising municipal services under extreme pressure

Volunteer coordination

Cooperation between local government and civil society

4. Adapting the Healthcare System to Wartime Conditions

Transformation of healthcare services

Trauma care and rehabilitation

Hospital management during wartime

Long-term healthcare resilience

5. Mental Health During Prolonged Crisis

Psychological consequences of war

Community resilience

Mental health services

Supporting frontline professionals and civilians

6. Public Communication During Crisis: Building Trust and Countering Disinformation

Crisis communication

Maintaining public trust

Countering misinformation and disinformation

Communication after missile attacks

7. Social Cohesion During Wartime

Delivering essential social services under wartime conditions

Adapting municipal social support systems to rapidly changing needs

Supporting a rapidly growing veteran community

Organising school education during wartime

Ensuring continuity of education while maintaining safety for students and staff

19:00 Dinner

WORKING GROUPS TOPICS

2nd Day 09:00–15:30

1. Managing the Reception and Integration of Internally Displaced Persons, Volunteer coordination
2. Critical Infrastructure Protection and Response to Missile Attacks
3. Delivering Social Services
4. Organising School Education During Wartime
5. Civil Preparedness, Public Communication and Countering Disinformation